

Webinar booking terms & conditions

These Terms

These terms and conditions apply between the person seeking registration on one of our Webinars (“you”) and Brachers LLP (“We”, “us”).

These terms apply to your application for registration for the relevant webinar session (“the webinar”).

By submitting your registration to attend the webinar you agree to be bound by these terms to the exclusion of all other terms.

Offer and Acceptance

Your registration is an offer to us to attend the webinar. It is subject to our acceptance in writing (which may include (without limitation) email).

A binding contract will only form when written confirmation of acceptance is sent by us to you.

We reserve the right in our sole discretion to refuse to accept any registration.

Cancellations and Substitutions

We may cancel your registration for any reason and at any time.

You may cancel your registration for any reason and at any time.

You may substitute your registration with another employees from your organisation at any time but in all other respects your registrations is issued for your personal use only and cannot be shared with any person.

You must email any substitutions to judiunderdown@brachers.co.uk prior to the date of the webinar.

You may not purchase registrations as an agent for any third party, or sell, or otherwise, transfer your registration to others, or exploit the registration commercially or non-commercially in any way.

Changes to Session

We may (at our sole discretion) cancel, change the format (including the software platform), speakers, participants, content, date and timing and programme or any other aspect of the webinar at any time and for any reason in each case without liability.

Exclusion of Liability

To the fullest extent permitted by the applicable law, we shall not be liable to you for any loss, delay, damage or other liability incurred resulting from or arising in connection with the cancellation or date or time change or any other permitted changes to the webinar howsoever arising.

We may (at our sole discretion) refuse admission to, or eject from the webinar, any person in our absolute discretion, including (without limitation) any person who fails to comply with these terms and conditions or who in our opinion represents a security risk, nuisance or annoyance or is disruptive to the running of the webinar.

To the fullest extent permitted by the applicable law, we exclude: (a) all liability for loss, injury or damage to persons or property
